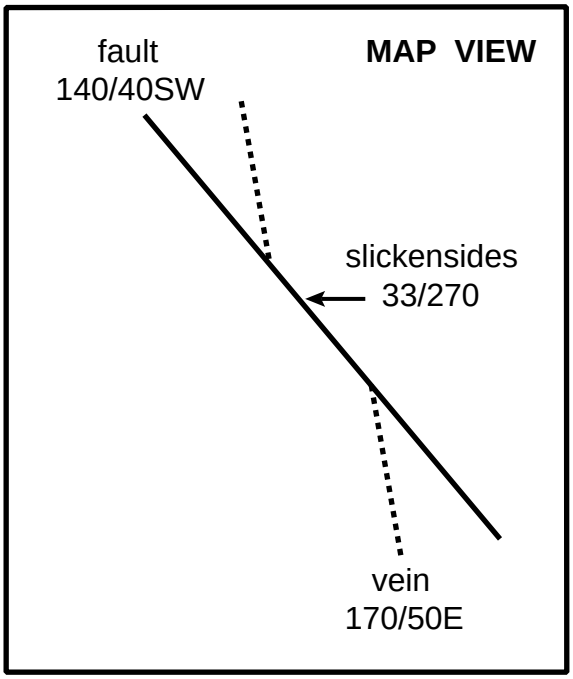
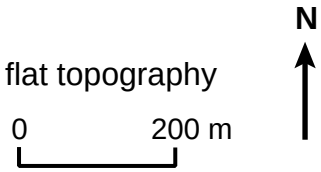
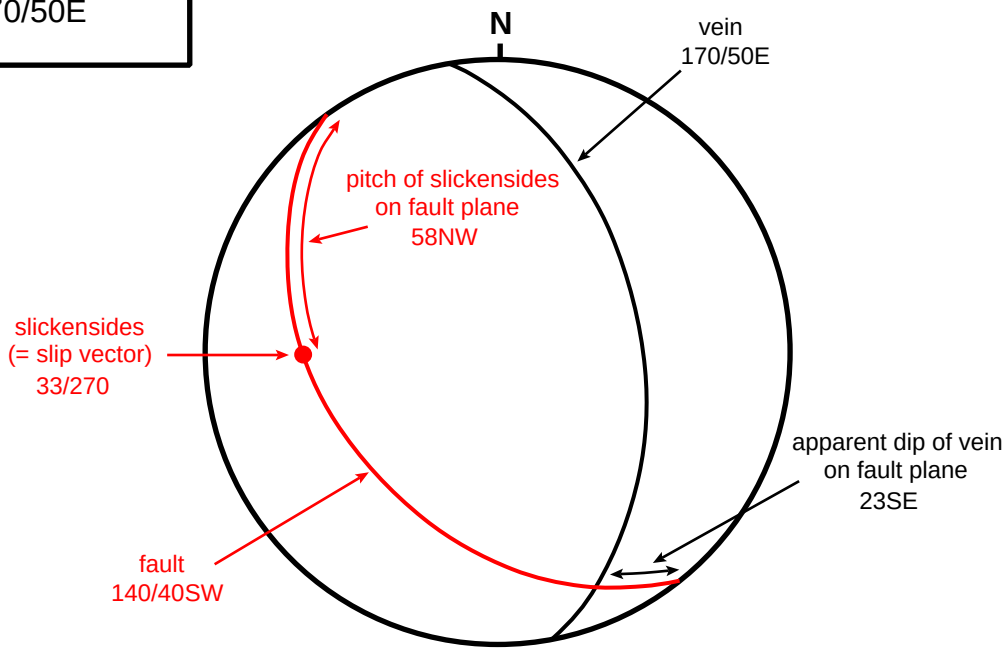
FINDING THE SLIP VECTOR MAGNITUDE GIVEN THE ORIENTATION OF THE SLIP-VECTOR AND ONE OFFSET







If the fault plane section is oriented as if one was standing on the footwall looking up at the hanging wall, then the slip vector arrows will have the correct sense of movement when drawn from the footwall to the hanging wall fault plane (140/40 SW) section