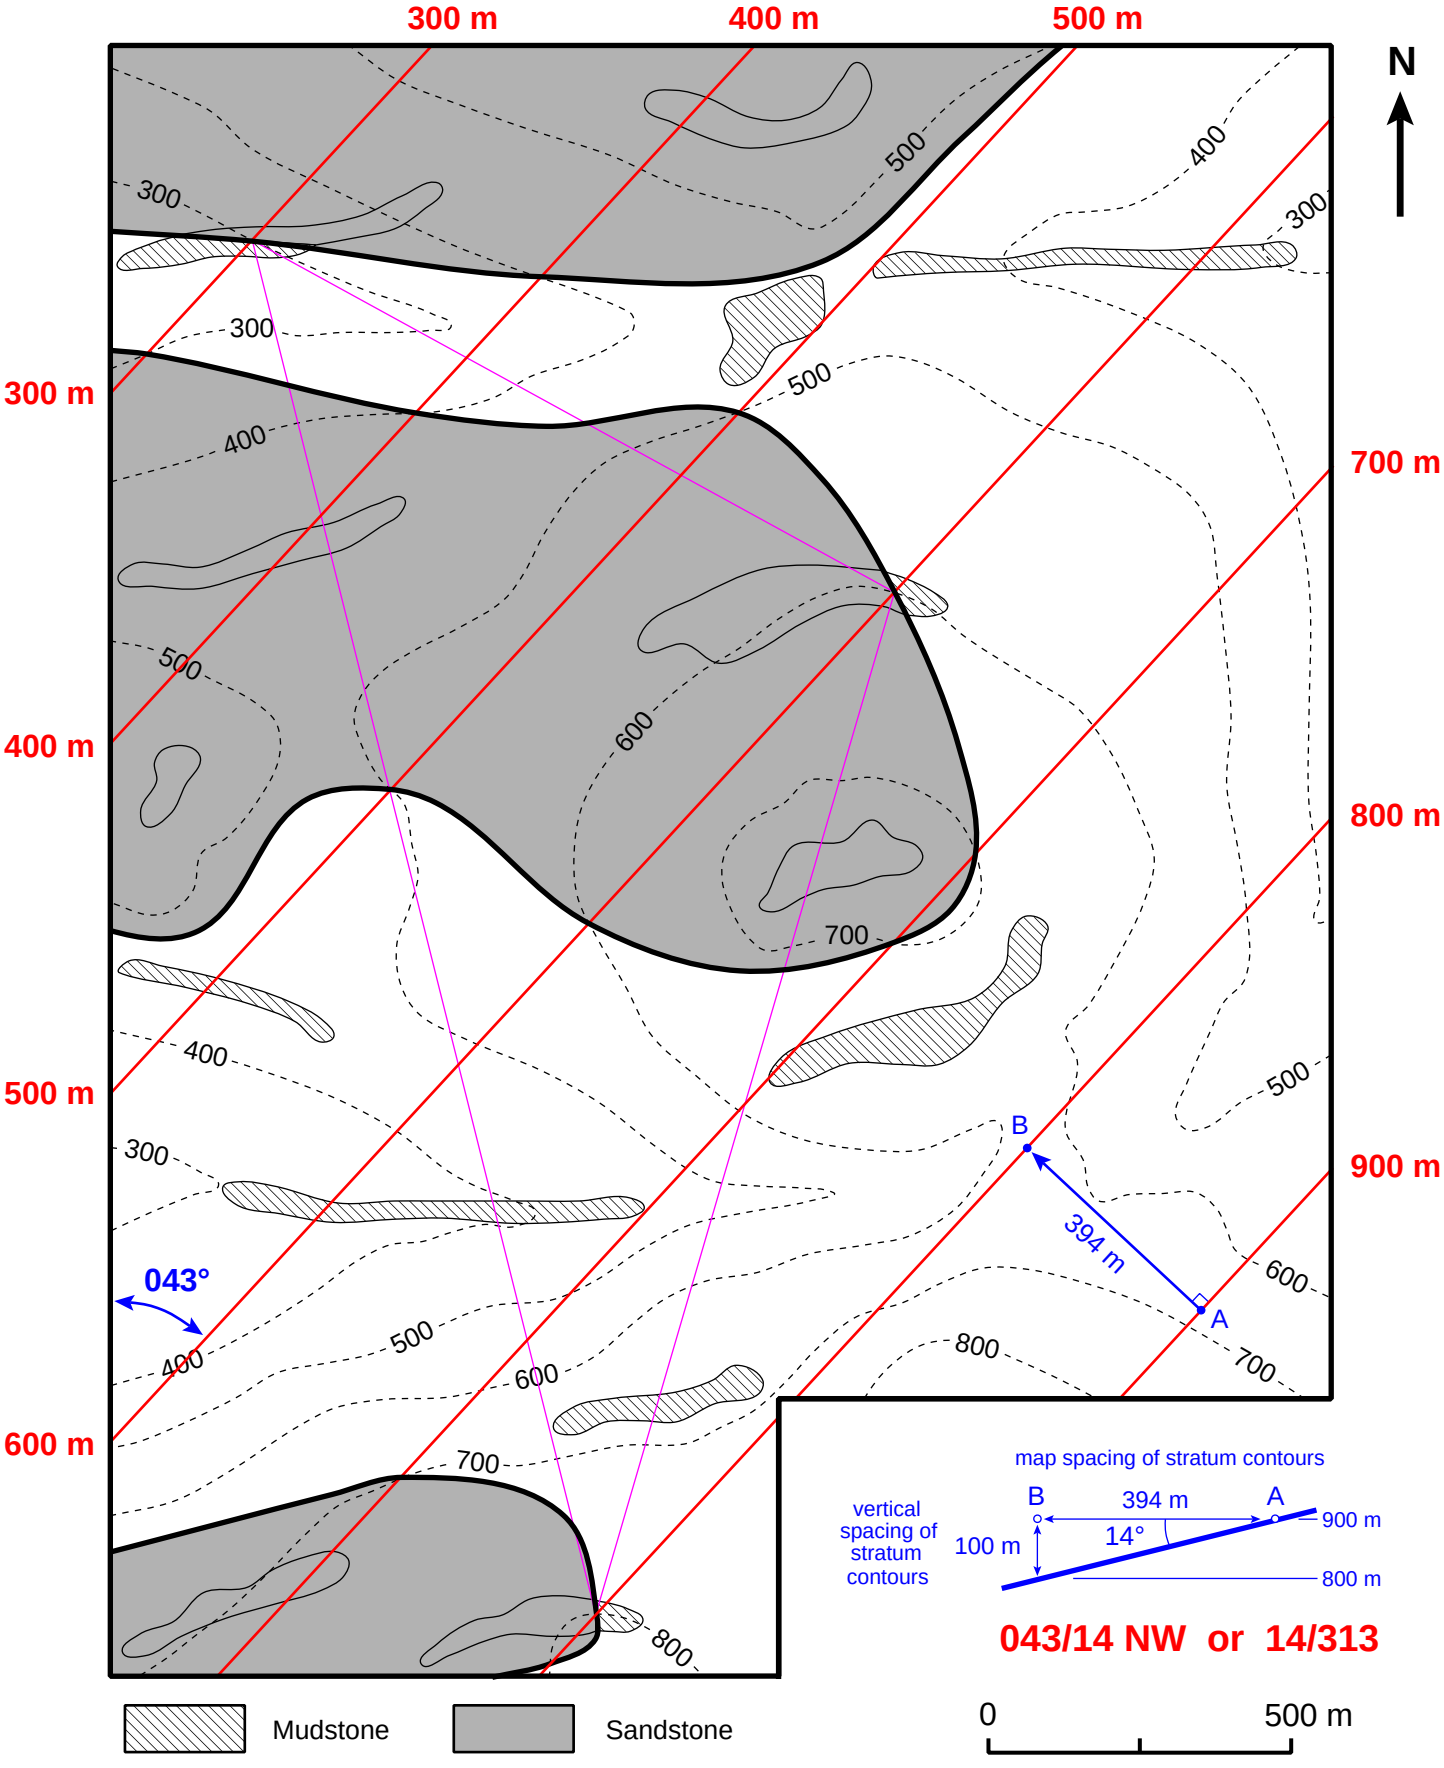
THE ORIENTATION OF SURFACES (2)

1. Completing a map given the position of contacts


The map below shows a number of exposures of sandstone and mudstone scattered over a hilly terrain. The area left blank is unexposed. Assuming that the contact between the two units dips uniformly, complete the map to show the outcrop pattern of the two units. Determine the orientation of the contact.